Fitzgerald Summer Fun

1) Color Day

Every Monday the Fitzgerald Summer Camp, Gately Youth Center, Peabody Pre-school, and Camp Rainbow come together for a morning of fun and play. These activities teach important life skills such as Sportsmanship, effort, and teamwork. The activities planned lead up to our annual Color Day Event celebrated with an awards luncheon for all participants.

2) City Sprouts Gardening

Weekly visits to our school garden provide children with exploration of the great outdoors. Jane Smilie and her staff educate the children through planting, digging, composting, identifying insects and their jobs, and craft activities.

3) Weekly Field Trips

Every Wednesday is field trip day.

This year the trips include (but subject to change).

Session 1: Roller world & Lake Cochituate

Session 2: Museum of Science & Roller world

Session 3: Lake Cochituate, Castle Island, North Shore Music Theater

Rain dates: Ryan's Family Amusements, Sacco's Bowling Alley, and Chunky's Movie Theater.

Local Trips: Cambridge Fire Station, Pemberton Gardens, Bertucci's Pizza, Christina's Ice Cream, O'Neil Branch Library, & McCrehan Pool (Rindge. Ave.)

Summer Family Trips: Red Sox Game
Canobie Lake Park

4) Dizzy Lou Productions

For over 30 years the Fitzgerald Summer Camp has put on a special end of the summer musical performance. The children practice singing & dancing while they create their own costumes, scenery, and props. Senior staff, Mayor's Youth Program, and campers provide the talent for a morning of entertainment followed by a reception to celebrate a wonderful summer.

5) Tennis Club (Additional cost & registration required.)

The Fitzgerald Summer Camp & Cambridge Tennis Club has teamed up to provide children ages 8 – 12 with six weeks of tennis lessons at a private club. Every Friday afternoon from 11a.m. - 2p.m. Limited spaces available.
